

We Help Our Clients Outperform
Their Competitors.

AMX International, Incorporated (AMXi) is a management consulting firm specializing in improving performance, resiliency and growth through sustainable risk management solutions. Our objective is to help you improve your bottom line and increase the value of your organization. Our experts are proven leaders with the skills, knowledge and experience required to work with global cross functional teams and to collaborate with people at all levels of your enterprise. Our approach to risk management provides directors with a clear understanding of major risks faced by the organization, and enables senior executives and key decision makers to more aggressively pursue opportunities that maximize overall business performance and growth.

We provide expertise gained from experience. Clients choose us because:

- They want innovative and comprehensive risk management solutions that contribute to overall business performance and growth.
- They need expert advice on enterprise risk management, business continuity management, business processes, methodology, governance, compliance, etc.
- They want an independent, objective and uncompromised advice on risk management and business continuity products and/or services.